Overview: Manipal Academy of Higher Education and Manipal Centre for European Studies

Manipal Academy of Higher Education (MAHE), a pioneer in higher education services in India with a sixty-year old legacy, has increasingly become the preferred destination for students and scholars across the globe. Over 35,000 students from different nations live and learn in the sprawling varsity town, which provides excellent infrastructure catering to various disciplines in health sciences, engineering, management, communication, social sciences and humanities. Situated along the coast in Udupi district of Karnataka State and nestled in the foothills of the UNESCO world-heritage site, Western Ghats, the Institution opens up to an ideal environment for academic activities, sports, and leisure.

Since its inception in 2009, Manipal Centre for European Studies (MCES) has distinguished itself as an important Centre in India for multidisciplinary studies and research on Europe and European Union institutions. MCES, now a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence in India-EU Interdisciplinary Studies, is actively involved in furthering India-Europe interactions through innovative academic programs, research projects, and university partnerships. Its academic programs include MA European Studies, Doctoral Studies and Research program and summer/winter schools that are organised annually.

The Centre also works in close association with - (i) Department of Languages, which offers a BA in Foreign Languages and Intercultural Studies and certificate courses in German, French, Spanish, Italian, Polish etc. (ii) Department of Philosophy, which offers MA programs in Indian philosophy and Sanskrit Studies (iii) Centre for Intercultural Studies and Dialogue, which through its Summer and Winter Schools, workshops and courses provides a platform for both students and personnel to develop deeper cultural engagements with the community around.

The MA program in European Studies offered by MCES is a one-of-its-kind postgraduate program in India. It caters to a growing interest in the study of Europe, its intellectual history, culture, literature, and policy and governance in European Union through its institutions. With a unique opportunity to study a part of the program in one of our partner universities in Europe, this multidisciplinary program is designed to foster understanding of various aspects of European studies and prepare students for research and work internationally. The program offers four specialization tracks: business and economics; education policy and governance; politics and international relations; culture and literary studies.
